

HSM Risk Assessment

Wind Vane Hill Cross - Cape Evans, Ross Island

 DETAILS

Shared 2026-02-03
Created 2025-01-29 15:42:56
Owner guest

Description

Cross on Wind Vane Hill, Cape Evans, Ross Island, erected by the Ross Sea Party, led by Captain Aeneas Mackintosh, of Sir Ernest Shackleton's Imperial Trans-Antarctic Expedition of 1914-1916, in memory of three members of the party who died in the vicinity in 1916. Site incorporated within ASPA 155

Risk Assessment Score

4.6

0 (Low)

10 (Extreme)

Risk Assessment Details

1 Is the HSM comprised of durable materials?

No

2 Is the HSM located in the Western Antarctic (i.e., west of the Transantarctic Mountains)?

Yes

3 Is the HSM located on the Antarctic Peninsula, South Orkney Islands, or South Shetland Islands?

No

4 Is the HSM located at a coastal site?

Yes

5 Is the HSM located 3m or less above sea level?

No

6 Is the HSM located within 100m of shoreline?

No

7 Does the HSM site have steep slopes (i.e., greater than 20%)?

Yes

8 Is the HSM situated on permafrost soils?

No